

My Graduation Day

A large, empty white rectangular area with rounded corners, intended for writing or drawing. The area is centered on the page and occupies most of the lower half. The background of the page is light blue, with a red banner at the top and a red bar at the bottom left.

My Graduation Day

A large, white, rounded rectangular area that occupies most of the page, intended for the child to write about their graduation day. The rectangle has a soft shadow and is set against a yellow background.